

By Kathy Buccio | November 9, 2017 | Food & Drink

The heart of downtown Miami is bursting with new life and energy, thanks to the addition of the super-luxe shopping and dining destination, Brickell City Centre. It's not just the high-fashion or the killer architecture that has everyone talking, but the food has taken visitors and locals by storm. This super dome of culture is quickly becoming a hotspot of culinary greatness with fresh grab-and-go concepts to wine bars and million dollar rooftop bars, ensuring Brickell City Centre can satisfy even the most hard-to-please palates

Le Roy Rene

Le Roy Rene

The sweetness of Provence has made its way to the high-end Brickell City Centre retailer, and its fitting right in. This exquisite confectionery sells delicate calissons, nougats, chocolates, biscuits, and jams to the refined shopper. The original recipe of finely ground Mediterranean sweet almonds, Provencal melon and orange peel, on a wafer bed covered with royal icing, is what makes these 'hugs,' (as they're affectionately called), sweetly sinful. Brickell City Centre, 701 S Miami Ave. #335b, 786-347-5357